

The University Outreach and Group Fundraising

POSITION OVERVIEW:

The University Outreach and Group Fundraising team will connect with philanthropy efforts at universities and colleges around the United States to engage them in selecting Shule Foundation as the charity they choose to receive the money they raise. The Co-Team Leader volunteer role is to assist with various efforts that the team is working on, under the direction and guidance of the Team Lead. The volunteer will support through correspondence with university contacts, tracking progress of college level fundraising efforts that are underway, and helping to create and distribute materials the university teams need to be successful (i.e. Shule photos and publicity materials, templates and guidelines from sample fundraisers)

This opportunity is ongoing, and can be shared by more than one volunteer to support a university relationship. It requires a minimum commitment of 8-10 hours per month. This volunteer will have a great opportunity to learn about fundraising through community service groups, as well as the rewarding experience of seeing the funds grow through your efforts to directly impact the lives of students in East Africa.

ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Work with team lead to develop the strategy and plan contacts with Universities
- Maintain communication and tracking data for contacts with Universities
- Communicate via email and phone with University contacts to keep the fundraising efforts going
- Update and distribute fundraising kit materials to contacts as needed
